

PSSR Course Structure and Session Objectives

0900 – 0915	Introduction and Enrolment
0915 – 1015	Emergencies & Communication Lecturer to go through PowerPoint presentation After the session the candidate will have knowledge of types of emergency which may occur, such as collision, fire, foundering Knowledge of shipboard contingency plans for response to emergencies Emergency signals and specific duties allocated to crew members in the muster list; muster stations, correct use of personal safety equipment Action to take on discovering potential emergency, including fire, collision, foundering and ingress of water into the ship Action to take on hearing emergency alarm signals Value of training and drills Knowledge of escape routes and internal communication and alarm systems Ability to understand orders and to communicate with others in relation to shipboard duties
1015 – 1045	Marpol Lecturer to go through PowerPoint presentation After the session the candidate will have appreciation of Effects of operational or accidental pollution of the marine environment Basic environmental protection procedures
1045 – 1115	Safe working Practices Lecturer to go through PowerPoint presentation After the session the candidate will have appreciation of Importance of adhering to safe working practices at all times Safety and protective devices available to protect against potential hazards aboard ship Precautions to be taken prior to entering enclosed spaces Familiarisation with international measures concerning accident prevention and occupational health
1115 – 1130	Tea Break
1130 – 1230	Human Relationships Lecturer to go through PowerPoint presentation After the session the candidate will have appreciation of importance of maintaining good human and working relationships aboard ship Social responsibilities; employment conditions; individual rights and obligations; dangers of drug and alcohol abuse
1230 – 1300	Exam
1300 – 1330	Certificate issue